Points of note: M.I.C. has 2 albums to it's credit. Their current release is a collection of Melodic, Hard Rock, Pop Ballade and punk. Work has started on the 3rd album and is scheduled for a late 2010 release.

M.I.C. has been playing in China since 2004. The band boasts performances on various TV shows. One show worthy of mention is one where M.I.C. represented the city of Chengdu in 2007 broadcast to millions all across China. They've just recently opened a show for renown Chinese Pop Stars: Wang Feng, An Youqi & Xian Zion on a live TV broadcast . Their first CD received airplay across Europe: France, Germany, England and Spain. They've also been reviewed in major European magazine as well as countless webzines.

Yvon Serre has 5 albums to his credit. Signing his first record deal at the age of 23, he appeared on many TV shows and received considerable airplay on various radio stations. In the mid-90's, Serre went all-out, dressing up as a clown, wearing stilts and more! www.myspace.com/theharrystraightband

To date, Serre has written more than 300 songs. Many of these can be heard on www.youtube.com with more than 40 videos that date back to as early as 1975.
